DARING OMAHA GRAVE ROBBERY

Iowa Medical School.

After Dr. Parkhurst.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 .- Mayor Gilroy received a note in French today warning him not to allow anyone to go into the church or court where Dr. Parkhurst is. By so deing he would prevent great disaster because there are those who wish "to make him jump into the air," because he disgraced and dirtied New York and did so much harm to unfortunate women.

Grave Robbing.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 30 .- Two corpses were found in a box last night, at the Pacific Express office. They have been identified as those of Mrs. C. A. D. Brown, the wife of a well known Omaba man, buried in Forest Lawn cemetery Thursday, and M. W. A. Me-Whimmey, an old soldier, who died at connected with the Iowa State Univer-

Unjust Judges in Trouble.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 .- Justice of the Peace Newton and Sutherland of Gravesend, with "Boss" MsKane, were arrested this afternoon. There are 11 indictments against McKane and two against each of the others. McKane was released on bonds.

Mrs. Lease's Successor

TOPEKA, Dec. 30,-Governor Lewelling appointed J. W. Freeborn, sheriff of McPherson county, member of the board of trusters of state charitable institutions, to succeed Mrs. Lease.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30 .- Prendergast, the murderer of Carler H. hanged for his crime.

In the court-room he showed that BURROUGHS 103 State Street. In the court room he showed that one trait existed in common between he and Guiteau. He proved himself an usmanly, miserable coward, who would save his own life at any price. When Clerk Fitzgerald arose to read and More Coming, the finding of the jury the prisoner stood clutching the back of his chair his face flushed and his knees trembling violently.

"We, the jury, find the defendant, Patrick Eugene Prendergast, guilty of mucler in the manner and form as charged in the indictment, and fix the penalty at death," read Fitzgerald.

Then Prendergast revealed himself to be an utter coward, his face turned pale. He opened his mouth to speak, but only a fai it murmur came, He m ved slightly, and would have fallen but for the assistance of the bailiff.
